

K-Love serves our local community by providing quality Christian programming that our small community could not afford on its own.

A local radio station offering the same kind of programming could not survive on the limited funding that this community could provide.

K-Love broadcasts family friendly radio that my family and many other families in our community count on. We value the service they provide us - as well as the connection to other Christian communities throughout the country.